OPENING SCRIPT — READ THIS OUT LOUD

"Hi, is this [Name]? Great! My name is [Your Name] and I'm calling on behalf of Chris Null, who's running for Salt Lake County Council District 5.

"Chris is a convention-only candidate and he's asking for your support at the County Convention on April 18th at Cottonwood High School. Do you have 60 seconds?"

(If yes, continue:)

"Chris served as your Salt Lake County Republican Party Chair from 2021 to 2025. He believes in you — the delegates — which is why he chose to go convention only instead of collecting signatures.

"He'd love your vote on the 18th. You can learn more and see upcoming events at votechrisnull.com. Can we count on your support?"

(Thank them warmly and wrap up.)

KEY TALKING POINTS — KNOW THESE

- Convention Only — Chris trusts the delegate process. His opponent gathered signatures instead.
- Strong Conservative Record — Social, fiscal, and constitutional conservative. Has defended the Republican Party platform his entire career.
- Stood Up for Your Freedoms — Fought forced masking and vaccine mandates. He didn't just talk — he acted.
- Stop Paying Twice — Residents pay twice when cities AND the county both run parks, rec programs, and youth services. Chris will transition duplicate services to cities — just like Riverton did, saving taxpayers millions.
- No Tax Increases — Opposes Mayor Jenny Wilson's nearly 20% property tax hike and wasteful county spending.
- Public Safety First — Full support for law enforcement and ICE cooperation. No political games with public safety.
- Endorsed By — Former Riverton Mayor Trent Staggs, Councilman Sheldon Stewart, Councilman Carlos Moreno, and Riverton City Councilman Andy Pierucci.

"That's a great question — I'd encourage you to visit votechrisnull.com or reach out to Chris directly. He'd love to connect with you."

A NOTE FROM CHRIS

To My College Republican Friends,

I want you to know how deeply grateful I am for every hour you're giving tonight. Making phone calls on behalf of a candidate isn't the glamorous part of politics — but it is the heartbeat of it. You are the ones doing the real work, and it means more than I can say.

The College Republicans are more important than many people realize. What you're building together — the friendships, the debates, the shared principles — creates something lasting. You're showing your fellow students that there are other options, that it's not only okay but good to question the collectivist and socialistic ideas that have crept into so much of our culture. That takes courage, and I admire every one of you for it.

You have my full support and my deepest respect. The conservative movement needs young leaders who are principled, engaged, and unafraid — and that's exactly what I see when I look at this group.

I genuinely cannot wait for the day when I'll be watching many of you run for office yourselves. Until then, thank you for standing with me tonight.

With gratitude and respect,

Chris Null

Candidate, Salt Lake County Council District 5
